IN MEMORIAM

IN memory of my dear husband and father, Hubert Paskey, who passed away November 14, 1968.

He bid no one a last farewell.
He said good-by to none.
The heavenly gage just opened wide.
And a lovely voice said come.

A loved one from us is gone,
A place is vacant in our home
that can't be filled.
He had a word for everyone, a heart as good as gold.
To those who knew and loved him,
His memory will never grow old.

Sadly missed by his wife, children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. 11-25-1p

In remembrance of Mrs. Alberta C. Ferguson who would have celebrated her 97th birthday Sunday, November 28. She is gone but not forgotten. The Family. 11-25-1t

PUBLIC NOTICE

The following proposed ordinance will be considered by the Appomattox Town Council at their December 1971 meeting.

SEC. 4-1

Keeping Fowl, Livestock, etc. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association, or corporation to allow or permit any fowl or poultry, or livestock of any description, to stray to public property or private premises of another, and all poultry, fowl or livestock shall be sufficiently housed or fenced up by the owner or person exercising control over such poultry, etc., so as to prevent the same from trespassing or straying.

The lot where any livestock is kept within the Town must have an area of at least two and one half(2 1/2) acres for each head of livestock, and the lot must be at least one hundred(100) feet from any dwelling.

SEC. 4-4-1.

STABLES: A suitable stable shall be maintained for the animal/or animals within the lot, and shall be approved by the Health Department before a permit is issued.

(a) Every stable in the town shall be thoroughly cleaned at least once a day, and shall have sufficient light to make cleaning practicable, and sufficient ventilation to keep the stable air pure at all times.

(b) Every stable shall have either within or immediately adjoining, a watertight, covered box, bin, or barrel for receiving and holding manure and litter which accumulates between the times of removal from the premises. The fitness of such box, bin, or barrel shall be passed upon by the department of public health. The manure shall be removed and disposed of in a sanitary manner.

SEC. 4-4-2.

PERMIT: A permit shall be required before any of the above animals may be kept in Town. The permit may be revoked at any time the use regulations are violated.

SEC. 4-4-3.

FINES: Anyone violating this ordinance will be fined five (5) dollars and costs. Each day of violation will be considered a separate offence.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This ordinance shall be effective on and after December 1, 1971.

CARD of THANKS

Once again friends and neighbors have been generous and kind with visits, cards and gifts. A "Thank You" to all of you from a grateful heart. C. Courtney Harvey. 11-25-1p

I wish to express my thanks to the church for flowers and to my friends and family for their prayers, visits and cards, during my stay in the hospital and since returning home. Ora H. Baker. 11-25-1p

I would like to express with deep appreciation for all the kind deeds shown me while in the hospital and since my return home. Also for flowers, gifts, and cards I received. A special thanks to the Rescue Squad who carried me to the hospital and my pastor, Rev. Derryl Holliday for his faithful prayers and visits. May God bless you all.

Proposed priorities for mapping the various counties include urgency of local needs, state and national needs, local contribution, and amount of soils information already available.

Often the application for a soil survey is made after urban expansion brings in its many problems. Urban sprawl creates situations where undesirable soils are used, excessive soil erosion is produced, septic tanks fail, and basements are flooded. Often the urban development is at the expense of the best agricultural land.

The most rapid growth here is around the Town of Appomattox which has the highest percentage of wet soils. Many otherwise desirable sites have unsuitable soils for homesites.

FORGET-ME-NOTS FOR DISABLED WAR VETERANS

A fashion reminder was offered today by the Disabled American Veterans.

Howard M. Mayberry, Commander of the Lynchburg Chapter #8, D. A. V. said today "Forget me-Not - Blue is always in style, but never more than right now. The best-dressed women and men of Lynchburg area will be wearing it on Friday, Saturday, Nov. 26-27, when volunteers will offer the small blue flower of remembrance on street corners all over town.

It isn't an expensive fasion, either said commander Mayberry. The official slogan of the D. A. V. Forget-Me-Not-Drive is "Give a Little For Those Who Gave a Lot".

He pointed out that friends collected during the drive, will

He pointed out that funds collected during the drive will be used locally in rehabilitation and service work for Disabled Veterans and their dependents.

The D.A.V. also provides free service to all Disabled Veterans and their families in filing their claims for government benefits. They also help with problems of employment, hospitalization, insurance and vocational training.

CORRECTION

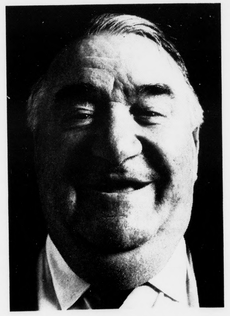
A wonderful feeling...



cash for Christmas!

What is it about Christmas that makes us feel and act so differently? Maybe it has something to do with love and the chance to give to people we really care about. But giving costs money. And the thought of all those bills coming due in January can spoil the joy. Make this the Christmas you do something about it. Like opening a Fidelity Christmas Club Account. Or even two. (One of our bank officers has three!) Each week, salt away a few dollars ... five, ten, whatever's easy. And Fidelity helps your savings grow—we add a big 5% interest on paid up clubs computed on a 50 week scheduled basis. Then next Christmas your shopping money is ready and waiting for you. Think of it. Cash for Christmas! Your own Christmas savings plus interest. It's enough to make you want to deck the halls.

Volunteer Program Begins

Mrs. Rebecca Smith (right) is a volunteer in a new program begun last week at Appomattox Primary School. Mrs. Smith is devoting a few hours each week to help teachers and their aides, (Mrs. Ann Coffey, left, is an aide). On Monday she helped to count, mimeograph and file some of the many sheets of desk work needed for reading instruction and in other subjects by third graders. Mrs. Smith, plus nearly fifty other parents and patrons signed a "talent and interest" survey recently sent out by principal Mrs. Jean Hesson. Response has been enthusiastic says Mrs. Hesson, with the adults working under a teacher's direction to offer individual tutoring to a child needing help in reading, writing, arithmetic, etc. Some of the volunteers are helping with craftwork, music or some other phase of instruction for which they are trained or qualified. There's still room for more volunteers says Mrs. Hesson. Fathers can help, too — and a free lunch hour or part of an afternoon spent at school could prove to be interesting — and of benefit to many children, she adds.

Miss Jordan Honored By Va. College

Miss Elizabeth H. Jordan was a special guest of St. Paul's College, Lawrenceville, Va., during the week end festivities connected with the inauguration of Dr. James Alvin Russell, Jr., as fourth president of the eighty-three year old institution. She was a former teacher of the new president, and during her seventeen years at St. Paul's co-authored and directed a pageant, An Adventure in Faith, celebrating the fiftieth Anniversary of its founding.

St. Paul's one of the ten Episcopal Church-related Colleges was founded in 1888 by Arch Deacon James Soloman Russell, grandfathers of the newly invested president. He was succeeded by his son, Dr. James Alvin Russell, Sr. In 199, the third president, Dr. Earl H. McClenny, resigned and became president of the Association of Episcopal Colleges with headquarters in the Episcopal Center, New York City.

The week end was filled with interesting activities beginning Friday night with a concert performed by The Tactical Air Command Band of Langley Air Force Base, Va. On Saturday morning under cloudless skies, a colorful procession of dignitaries — trustees, clergy and educators —moved in stately columns to the Taylor - Whitehead Gymnasium where the inaugural ceremonies took place. Mr. Charles A. Carr, Chairman of the Board of Trustees presided over the investiture. Among those participating were the most Revered John S. Hines, D.D., Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church, The Right Reverend David S. Ross, D.D., The Honorable E. Norborne Doyle, Mayor of Lawrenceville, Mr. Dan Daniels and many others. The college choir and band furnished the music. A luncheon and an Inaugural Ball completed the day's events.

Sunday morning at 11 a.m. communicants and visitors celebrated The Holy Communion in St. Paul's Memorial Chapel. The Reverend Alexander Easley, College Chaplain, was the celebrant.

In Lawrenceville, Miss Jordan was the house guest of Dr. and Mrs. S. Randolph Edmonds.
